

Introduction

MASA Israel Journey: The Gateway to Long-Term Israel Programs, enables thousands of Jewish young adults (18-30) to spend a semester or year in Israel on one of over 120 approved programs by providing information, scholarships, and more. MASA's aim is to help young Jews from around the world build a life-long relationship with Israel and a firm commitment to Jewish life.

The MASA Interns program will place MASA Interns on 40 North American university campuses. Each MASA Interns will be responsible for recruiting a pre-determined number of students for long-term Israel programs including study-abroad and post-college opportunities. MASA Interns will be paid $1,000 per semester and will receive a $1,000 programming budget per semester. There will also be a Shabbaton for all MASA interns once per semester.

MASA Interns must either be current participants or alumni of a MASA program. MASA Interns must be able to demonstrate the desire and ability to recruit students to participate on Israel programs and to organize events on campus related to Israel programs.
