

American Zionist Movement
Helyn B. Reich Scholarship – Post-University Experience

Each year, the American Zionist Movement grants scholarships to a limited number of students who demonstrate past pro-Israel activity and a commitment to future involvement with Israel and the Jewish community. Financial need will also be considered, though more emphasis will be placed on merit.

Eligibility:

1. Applicants must be American.
2. Applicants must have been accepted to participate in an Israel Career Experience or WUJS Institute-Arad program in Israel for a minimum of one session (Preference given to students attending for a full year).
3. Applicants must be actively engaged with pro-Israel activities in their Jewish community in the United States.

Recipients of the Helyn B. Reich Scholarship will be expected to remain involved with the American Zionist Movement following their return to the United States. Involvement may include promotion of the American Zionist Movement or one of its member organizations and attendance at AZM events and telephone and e-mail contact with future scholarship applicants.

Scholarship Instructions:

The scholarship application involves the following items:

1. Application Form
2. Financial Background Form
3. Two Letters of Recommendation: Submit one letter of recommendation from a leader in the Jewish community (i.e. rabbi, Hillel staff member) who can attest to your involvement in the Jewish community and pro-Israel activities. Submit another letter of recommendation from your choice of a past employer, a past professor, or a second community leader.
4. Personal Statement: Please type on a separate piece of paper a personal statement describing Jewish/Zionist activities in which you have been involved and any leadership positions you have held, your reasons for attending this specific Israeli program, and how you think this experience in Israel will impact your future community involvement. What is your vision for your continued connection with Zionism? Statements should be two pages double-spaced, 600 words maximum.
5. Resume
