Hazon works towards a healthier and more sustainable Jewish community and a healthier and more sustainable world for all. Our programs fall into two areas: food and outdoor adventure. Hazon conducts a series of bike rides and hikes in the U.S. and Israel that raise money for the Jewish environmental movement in North America and Israel. Our food work asks people to consider contemporary food issues in light of Jewish tradition. Challah for Hunger chapters make and sell challah to raise money for poverty and disaster relief.
